WOMEN'S GIVING CIRCLE: Making a difference in McKean County

WGC is Strong & Growing!

New group is committed to philanthropy in our community

McKean County women, committed to volunteerism and sharing, came together on October 19, 2019 to learn more about the new Women's Giving Circle (WGC) of McKean County, a project of the McKean County Community Foundation.

Giving circles are groups of friends, neighbors, and individuals of like concerns that gather to learn about issues that interest them and pool money to fund nonprofit organization for a greater impact. Where one person may not always see the impact of a single donation to a charity, the giving circle method of pooling many smaller donations can make a significant impact on a charity. Membership is affordable and allows everyone to become a philanthropist by combining their donations and making a difference in McKean County.

Ideally, we will periodically gather our members together to network, learn about community needs, and award grants to local nonprofits. Area nonprofits may apply for funding through an annual competitive grants process.

For our Fall virtual granting meeting we ...

on November 17th

Unfortunately our due to the restriction of COVID we were unable to gather together for our annual business meeting but on November 17th we were able to hold an online meeting to celebrate our first year of grant making! Continuing in our next membership year again we were prevented from meeting for our membership recruitment but yet there are 58 members that believed in what we were doing regardless of the ability to have a gathering!!!!

JOIN US!

A member of WGC can be any community-minded woman seeking to support the needs of families in McKean County. Membership is on a yearly basis. When you commit to donating a minimum of $100 you will be deemed a member with voting privileges to determine which organizations receive a grant that year.

If you are interested in becoming a member or have questions about Women's Giving Circle, please contact the McKean County Community Foundation at 844.238.2289.
